Dear Parents/Carers

It's hard to believe that we are just finishing our first week back. The children have been working hard.

The Hedgehog class have been on a rock pool adventure, where they built a rock pool in the classroom and sang songs about the sea. Each child explored the colours of a rock pool; the creatures that might live there and the sounds that the waves make.

The Squirrel class have been doing digital drawing on the computer, learnt about human and physical features of the coast and created some sea creature drawings in their sketchbooks. They have been learning the story of The Lighthouse Keepers

Lunch and have been writing a character description for Mr Grinling.

The Fox and Owl classes have been enjoying learning about river features and creating artwork of river scenes. They have shown great creativity and excellent word choices when writing river poetry this week and learnt about personification. The class have also been investigating the Jewish faith in RE.

Best wishes,

Corrinne Smith
